JOIN THE CONGRESSIONAL CLEAN WATER CAUCUS

Dear Colleague,

We believe that innovation and technology hold the keys to addressing many of our nation's most serious water quality, water quantity and water infrastructure challenges. With this core belief in mind, we formed the bipartisan Congressional Clean Water Caucus. The purpose of the Clean Water Caucus is to provide a venue for educating Members on the game changing clean water technologies and water management innovations that are being pursued outside the Beltway.

As the Co-Chairs of the Congressional Clean Water Caucus, we encourage you to join the Caucus and our efforts to educate policymakers on the promise new technologies and management innovations hold in providing our nation clean and reliable water into the future. Please consider joining the Congressional Clean Water Caucus today.
