

Chris Hornback

Senior Director, Regulatory Affairs
National Association of Clean Water Agencies
Washington, DC

Chris Hornback joined the National Association of Clean Water Agencies (NACWA); formerly the Association of Metropolitan Sewerage Agencies in April 2001 and is currently Senior Director of Regulatory Affairs, responsible for formulating NACWA's regulatory policy. Mr. Hornback oversees the Association's efforts related to water quality, biosolids, and utility management and manages NACWA's regulatory affairs team. Mr. Hornback coordinates the activities of six standing committees and workgroups and manages the Association's Targeted Action Fund.

Prior to joining NACWA, Mr. Hornback worked as a Senior Associate with Booz Allen Hamilton, a multinational management consulting firm. During his five years with Booz Allen, Mr. Hornback specialized in the areas of hazardous waste management, solid waste management, underground storage tanks, risk management planning, and clean water issues.

Mr. Hornback has a BA in Environmental Science from the University of Virginia.