

Patricia Sinicropi

Director, Legislative Affairs

National Association of Clean Water Agencies

Washington, DC

Pat Sinicropi is Director of Legislative Affairs for the National Association of Clean Water Agencies (NACWA) where she is responsible for overseeing NACWA's legislative agenda, including legislation on the short and long term clean water infrastructure funding issues, energy and climate change, chemical security and watershed management. Ms. Sinicropi joined NACWA in 2008 after serving four years as Legislative Counsel to the Water Environment Federation (WEF) where her focus included the above mentioned issues plus other issues critical to the clean water community, including biosolids management. Prior to joining WEF, Ms. Sinicropi represented the Rural Community Assistance Partnership (RCAP), an organization that provides technical assistance and training to small, rural communities to help them meet their drinking water and wastewater infrastructure needs. During the Clinton Administration, Ms. Sinicropi served as Deputy Director at the President's Council on Sustainable Development for the National Town Meeting on Sustainable America and as Special Advisor on Livable Communities to the USDA's Deputy Secretary. Ms. Sinicropi holds a JD from the University of Maine Law School and a BA from Trinity College in Hartford, CT.
