

Sara Ewell

Director, Member & Subscription
National Journal
Washington, DC

Sara Ewell is the Director of Member Services for the National Journal Group. She joined the organization as Manager, Business Development in 2009 and in 2012, was asked to develop and launch the Member Services program at National Journal.

Today, Ms. Ewell leads a team of 10 staff who are dedicated to serving a growing membership comprised of over 750 of the nation's leading public policy organizations with information and insights generated through a rigorous, best practice research protocol. Prior to joining National Journal Group, she was Manager of Business Development at Coca-Cola North America's Denver Office.

Ms. Ewell is a graduate of Furman University in Greenville, S.C.