

Jonathan R. Pawlow

Majority Counsel

Water Resources and Environment Subcommittee

Transportation and Infrastructure Committee

U.S. House of Representatives

Washington, DC

Jon Pawlow is Majority Counsel for the Water Resources and Environment Subcommittee of the House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure. He is responsible for matters within the Subcommittee's jurisdiction relating to water pollution control and water infrastructure; wetlands; watersheds; hazardous waste cleanup; and water resources management, conservation, and development.

Mr. Pawlow is an attorney and scientist/engineer with expertise in the environmental and intellectual property fields. He has over 15 years of private law practice experience, and substantial public sector legislative, regulatory, law, policy, and technical experience, originally with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, more recently as Assistant Chief Counsel with the Office of Advocacy of the U.S. Small Business Administration, and now with the House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee.

Mr. Pawlow earned his law degree from the Georgetown University Law Center, and MS and BS degrees in water resources engineering and environmental science, at Rutgers University. He is a member of the District of Columbia and Virginia Bars, and is also registered as a patent attorney to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.