

Kenneth Kopocis

Deputy Assistant Administrator, Office of Water
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
Washington, DC

Ken Kopocis currently serves as a Deputy Assistant Administrator in the Office of Water at the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). He previously held several senior positions on the staffs of both the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Environment and Public Works of the Senate. The combined Congressional career spanned 26+ years. His Capitol Hill career included hundreds of congressional hearings, scores of legislative accomplishments, and interaction with the public, State and local officials, and interest groups. His areas of legislative and policy experience are: matters relating to water pollution control and water infrastructure; hazardous waste cleanup; water resources development, conservation and management; transportation; and, emergency and disaster response.

Mr. Kopocis graduated with his JD from the Marshall-Wythe School of Law of the College of William and Mary in 1980, and his BA from the University of Nebraska-Omaha in 1977.