

Fredric P. Andes

Partner

Barnes & Thornburg LLP

Chicago, IL

Fred Andes is a partner in the Chicago and Washington, D.C. offices of Barnes & Thornburg LLP, and is the leader of the firm's water team. Mr. Andes is involved in counseling and litigation on issues arising under various federal and state environmental laws, with a special emphasis on Clean Water Act matters.

Mr. Andes was been involved in numerous activities concerning development and implementation of U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) policy under the Clean Water Act. He was selected by the EPA to serve on the Federal Advisory Committee on the Total Maximum Daily Load (TMDL) Program. He is serving as coordinator for the Federal Water Quality Coalition, which is a group of municipal and other regulated parties that is participating in EPA's rulemakings and development of guidance on permits, water quality standards, TMDLs and other key Clean Water Act programs. He has also participated actively in the work of the U.S. Conference of Mayors concerning the development of EPA's Integrated Planning Framework.

Mr. Andes is also advising trade associations, industries, and municipalities on TMDLs, permits, standards, and other water quality matters on the state and federal levels, including development of permits and regulations concerning combined sewer overflow (CSO) and sanitary sewer overflow (SSO) discharges, publicly-owned treatment works (POTWs), municipal separate storm sewer systems (MS4s), integrated plans, and other Clean Water Act issues faced by municipalities.

Mr. Andes graduated cum laude from Harvard Law School in 1980. He obtained his undergraduate degree from Northwestern University in 1977. Mr. Andes is a member of the Illinois State, District of Columbia, and American Bar Associations. He is admitted to practice in the state of Illinois, the District of Columbia, the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois and the District of Columbia, and the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, and DC Circuits.

Jon Devine

Senior Attorney, Water Program

Natural Resources Defense Council

Washington, DC

Jon Devine is a senior attorney with the Natural Resources Defense Council's (NRDC) water program and he leads the clean water solutions team. His work focuses on implementing, defending, and strengthening Clean Water Act core programs. Mr. Devine specializes on the legal scope of the Clean Water Act; runoff pollution and the use of green infrastructure; water quality and nutrient pollution in the Mississippi River Basin; and mountaintop removal coal mining and its impacts on bodies of water in Appalachia. Prior to the water program, he worked with NRDC's health and environment program for four years. Before joining NRDC in 2001, Mr. Devine was an attorney-advisor in the Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Office of General Counsel. He was a law clerk for Judge Phyllis Kravitch of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. He received his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center in 1996 and graduated from Bowdoin College in 1991. Before attending law school, he was an environmental specialist in the Maine Department of Environmental Protection. Mr. Devine is admitted to practice in Massachusetts as well as Washington, DC.

Allen A. Kacenjar

Partner

Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP

Cleveland, OH

Allen Kacenjar's practice encompasses all areas of environmental law with particular emphases in regulatory development, rulemaking advocacy, complex environmental litigation and risk management counseling. He is a Partner at Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP, where his primary focus is on minimizing his client's exposure to environmental liabilities, whether through proactive efforts to shape evolving environmental laws, development of business practices, evaluation of transactional risks or aggressive litigation. Through his representation of major corporations, public entities and industry advocacy groups, Mr. Kacenjar has obtained substantial experience under all major state and federal environmental laws including the Clean Air Act; Clean Water Act; Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA); Toxic Substances Control Act (TSCA); Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act (CERCLA); and Ohio's Voluntary Action Program (VAP).

Mr. Kacenjar received a BS at Miami University, and graduated magna cum laude from Case Western Reserve University with a JD. There he was Order of the Coif, Executive Notes Editor for the Case Western Reserve Law Review.