

Scott Schwarz
General Counsel
Philadelphia Water Department
Philadelphia, PA

Scott Schwarz joined the City of Philadelphia Law Department in 2009 and was appointed as General Counsel to the Philadelphia Water Department in March, 2013. Prior to that, he spent over 25 years working in the environmental law divisions of law firms in Philadelphia and Washington, D.C. and gained government experience working for the State of Alabama's Office of the Attorney General and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

Mr. Schwarz received a BS in Biology from Bucknell University and a JD from George Washington University.