

Amanda Waters

Deputy General Counsel

NACWA

Washington, DC

Amanda Waters serves as Deputy General Counsel providing assistance in managing NACWA's litigation portfolio and implementing the Association's legal advocacy efforts. Amanda previously served as Deputy Executive Director & General Counsel for Member Agency Sanitation District No. 1 of Northern Kentucky, as well as Executive Director of Sustainability for Member Agency New York City Department of Environmental Protection. She has also worked at the state level as the Deputy General Counsel for the State of Kentucky Environmental & Public Protection Cabinet.

Amanda received a law degree from Pace Law School and a BS in biology from Eastern Kentucky University.