

Benjamin H. Grumbles

President

U.S. Water Alliance

Washington, DC

Ben Grumbles is President of the U.S. Water Alliance, a not-for-profit educational organization committed to uniting people and policy for “one water” sustainability throughout the country.

Prior to joining the Alliance, Mr. Grumbles led Arizona’s Department of Environmental Quality in 2009 and 2010, working on air quality and climate change, energy policy, waste management, water efficiency, and wastewater recycling. He also served as Assistant Administrator for Water at U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) from 2003 through 2008. He launched EPA’s water efficiency labeling program (Water Sense) and initiatives on green infrastructure, nutrients, wetlands, pharmaceuticals, and water and climate change. From 1985 to 2001, he served in the U.S. House of Representatives in various environmental counsel and staff director roles for the Transportation and Infrastructure Committee and Science Committee.
