

Ellen M. Mahan

Deputy Chief, Environmental Enforcement Section
U.S. Department of Justice Environment & Natural Resources Division
Washington, DC

Ellen Mahan is Deputy Chief of the Environmental Enforcement Section in the Environment and Natural Resources Division at the U.S. Department of Justice. She has been Deputy Section Chief since 2005, and had been part of the Enforcement Section's management team, serving as Assistant Chief overseeing enforcement in several different regions of the country, for the prior 14 years.

In her 30-plus years as an attorney in the Environmental Enforcement Section, Ms. Mahan has had the opportunity to engage in enforcement work with all of U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's ten regions as well as with EPA Headquarters and many state environmental agencies. Her substantive areas of focus include municipal Clean Water Act enforcement and municipal and industrial stormwater enforcement, as well as environmental justice.
