

Khari Mosley

Manager, Pennsylvania Regional Programs
BlueGreen Alliance
Pittsburgh, PA

Khari Mosley is the Pennsylvania Regional Programs Manager for the BlueGreen Alliance, a coalition of 14 of our country's largest unions and environmental organizations. He also is a co-founder and senior partner with Luminous Strategies a public affairs consulting firm based in Philadelphia. Previously, he served as the Director of Green Economy Initiatives for GTECH Strategies and National Political Director for the League of Young Voters. In addition, he served as the Democratic Chairman of Pittsburgh's 22nd Ward from December of 2004 until May of 2010.

Mr. Mosley has appeared on the Pittsburgh Cable News Channel (PCNC), the Pennsylvania Cable Network (PNC), Pittsburgh's CBS affiliate KDKA, PBS's Newshour, NPR's This American Life, The Roland Martin Show, Pittsburgh's KQV-Radio, Pittsburgh's KDKA Radio, and Pittsburgh's WAMO-FM among other media appearances. His political commentary has also appeared in the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and on Loop21.com. He has received numerous awards for his civic work from a variety of organizations and entities including: Pittsburgh Magazine, League of Women Voters, The A. Phillip Randolph Institute, Pennsylvania Governor Ed Rendell, Citizens for Pennsylvania's Future and the New Pittsburgh Courier.

Mr. Mosley attended Indiana University of PA where he holds a BS in Political Science.