

Seth Heminway

Water Branch

Monitoring, Assistance and Media Programs Division

Office of Compliance, OECA

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

Washington, DC

Since 2012, Seth Heminway has served as a senior analyst in the Water Branch in U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Office of Compliance, where his responsibilities cover a range of projects that support compliance with the Clean Water Act NPDES program. These include: setting national compliance monitoring policy, developing inspector training, prioritizing inspections, establishing clear rules and permits, and applying innovative compliance drivers. During his tenure he has supported EPA's compliance mission under the air and waste laws as well as analytical and compliance assistance work on numerous industry sectors. Mr. Heminway is a 1987 graduate of Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, Penn.